Vocational and Employment Support Services

With a 65% unemployment rate among individuals with disabilities, there is always a need to provide funding for vocational training, job support, and job placement. The Columbus Foundation raises and distributes funds that support community-based vocational and employments services. The "Dignity through Work Scholarship Fund." This fund is targeted for young adults who have completed their public education but who do not have the financial means to continue vocational training that would increase their chances of finding meaningful employment in the community. Between 7-20 scholarships are awarded each year. The Columbus Foundation also raises funds to expand

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 309,797 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 304,764)
Social Enterprise Innovation Program

Access to employment opportunities is one of the most difficult obstacles that individuals with disabilities face. The Social Enterprise Innovation Program targets current and new business opportunities that lead to the creation of employment opportunities for individuals with some of the most severe disabilities. These business lines include custodial, grounds maintenance, secure document destruction, secure digital imaging, assembly and production, and warehouse services. The Columbus Foundation owns and maintains the facilities that house these programs and ensures that facilities are well maintained, are accessible to all individuals, and meet
